LONDON METAL MARK

Wide and irregular fluctuations featured yesterday's trading in curb stocks. The market was exceedingly active, total transactions again crossing the 1,000,000 share mark, but heavy trading was centred in a few high priced independent ells and industrials. Some new highs were established, but at the close the list was inclined toward heaviness.

The afternoon market was featured by rewakening of General Asphalt. The stock was in vigorous demand and quickly advanced more than ten points, with a large gain in its preferred. Heaviest trading occurred in White Oil. which, after rising to a new high, lost all of the provement. Carib Syndicate shares to new high levels. Vansdium Vivaudou, Loew's,

Inc., and Loft, Inc., were moderately ac-tive and displayed a weak tone at the mession's end. Stanwood Rubber was steady, due to news that the concern has steady, due to news that the concern has options on the controlling interest in a large Eastern tire organization. The acquisition of that plant would give Stanwood three Eastern factories

Guffey Gillespie advanced about a point and a steady tone was shown in Bell Petroleum. Pauline Oil stock is related to the party and as high as $300 a ported to have soid as high as esow a share, due to bringing in of a large well near the company's property. Bell Petroleum controls Pauline Oil Company through ownership of 62 ½ per cent. of in capital stock.

A. T. Securities was strong early, but later reacted. Malbohm Motors was active and fractional advances were made

FUR OF GOATS HAIR TO RIVAL WHITE FOX SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS NOVEMBER 24, 1919.

New Process Puts Cheaper

London, Oct. 28.—Women who have been in despair over the price of furs have new dauge for rejoicing. Fashion has been busy in their behalf. The result is the very modish and equally becoming pelt known as tibet, which really is goat's hair. Under its old guies, crinicle and muffs, perambulator covers for children, sofa and hearth rugs. It appears now entirely devoid of curl and very much improved by a new process that turns it out a rich, deep, straight and fairly short pelt of most attractive guies, a crearry white shade, or, more serviceably, a pretty gray.

It does not seek to rival the white fox, but its price is decidedly in its favor, but its price in the individual processor in the cise of the corporation, no stock and the price of the corporation in an amount not exceedin tinues to go higher, with the result that women's fur coats and fur prices for the season of 1920-21 will be advanced considerably over the present remarkably season for trapping.
